SESSION 1: The Merger Process and Merger Negotiation Checklists (1CPE)
Presenter: Joe Tarasco, CEO Accountants Advisory Group

In this presentation, Joe Tarasco will be discussing different steps to take during mergers and acquisitions. Most merger and acquisition deals typically go through five stages: preliminary discussions, transactional detail meetings and negotiations, an initial agreement outlined in a memo of understanding or letter of intent, due diligence, and the transaction accord/signing of the partner/shareholder agreement. Determining and agreeing on the best criteria to achieve a successful merger is imperative to making the right decision at the right time. Developing a plan to guide the merger transaction and related checklists is a large task. We will go through the steps which starts with selecting the best firm to partner and combine with, then continuing to the ensuing pre-and post-merger activities, which are crucial to a successful merger.

SESSION 3: Sales Tax Best Practices - How to Stay Out of Trouble (with Nexus) (1 CPE)
Presenter: Mark Stone, CPA, MST, Sales Tax Defense, LLC

Sales and Use Tax is an area that is often confusing for small businesses. Each state has its own rules and guidelines, and failure to comply correctly can lead to hefty fees and penalties from the State Tax Departments. Add to this the exponential growth of e-commerce, the proper collection of sales and use tax grows more complicated and confusing.

In this not-to-be-missed seminar, we will discuss how to do sales tax the right way: including what to do when you get an audit notice, record-keeping requirements, multistate taxability guidance, and recent nexus developments in sales tax.

SESSION 6: Independence. (1CPE)

Presenter: Nancy Reimer Esq. and Patrick Cosgrove Esq. Freeman Mathis & Gary, LLP

Attorneys Nancy Reimer and Patrick Cosgrove, who have had a working relationship with McGowanPRO for many years, bring their legal expertise to share on the topic of independence and why all CPAs and accountants should be concerned in this risk management topic. This seminar will focus on reinforcing an accountant's personal and the firm's ethical responsibilities under the AICPA Code of Conduct. The seminar will also articulate differences between independence and other ethical considerations and identify non-attest services which may result in independence breaches. In addition, recent Code updates and changes that will be coming on the horizon will be discussed to prepare CPAs and accountants for the future.

SESSION 9: Engagement letters A to Z (1 CPE)

Presenter: John Raspante, CPA, CDFIA, MST, McGowanPRO's Director of Risk Management

Engagement letters are a very important tool in any CPA's risk management toolbox! Many times well-written engagement letters have stopped a claim from happening. In this 50-minute presentation, presenter John Raspante will discuss the engagement letter in response to the changes in tax law and the challenges in the accounting profession. John will point out the different caveats and clauses that all CPA firms should consider in their engagement letter language.

Caveats will be discussed to address the rapid changes in both tax and audit.

Included will be clauses to manage the impact of the Way Fair decision, pass-through entity taxes, and cannabis.

SESSION 10: Tips on How to Manage Professional Liability Risk Beyond the Engagement Letter (1 CPE)

Presenter: Joe Jones, Esq., AIA | Director of Risk Management Travelers Insurance and Neil Birmingham | Managing Director, Travelers Insurance

The engagement letter is an important risk management tool, but risk management does not start nor end with an engagement letter. There are numerous things that accounting professionals can do, such as: client screening and intake as well as good communication. These things will help identify potential risk and minimize the chances of a professional negligence claim. Should a claim of professional negligence occur, there are things accounting professionals can do along with having well-written and executed engagement letters, such as: proper documentation, record retention, and knowing when to seek help. These things and more will aid defense and minimize potential liability. Accounting professionals, as a prudent business practice, should have a comprehensive and expansive view of identifying and managing their professional liability risk.

SESSION 13: Client Information and Cyber security. (1CPE)
Presenter: Konrad Martin, CPA, CEO TechAdvisors Inc.

Cybercriminals are thriving amidst the current cloud and cyber environment. A global pandemic, massive remote work transitions, government stimulus payments, and an irregular tax calendar are all targets for attackers to exploit. For CPAs, this means that cybersecurity is becoming a constant battle to protect their clients' data.

This webinar is an engaging source of critical information that will help your firm take control of its security in the face of an ever-changing landscape. Participants will come away with a clear picture of remote work security risks and their impact on their clients, as well as the most effective steps to mitigate them. They will receive actionable advice on creating a resilient security that not only complies with State Security laws but builds layered protection against the most common attack varieties.

SESSION 15: Commercial Crime - Protecting your firm from fraud and theft - Fake Emails, Employee theft, Fraudulent transfer, Is your firm prepared?
Presenter: Rob Ferrini of McGowanPRO and Sean Kennedy of Hanover Insurance

No business is completely safe from the threat of theft or fraud. Although large corporations can be lucrative targets, small and mid-sized businesses (including accounting firms) often suffer greater losses because their limited resources leave them more vulnerable to attack. Claims related to employee theft, fraudulent instruction emails, and fraudulent transfer fraud are on the rise. IS YOUR FIRM PREPARED?

Joining Rob Ferrini for this informative webinar will be Sean Kennedy, Executive Underwriter - Fidelity & Crime with Hanover Insurance. Rob and Sean will be discussing some best practices that can help your firm reduce and transfer these risks, including what to look for, staff training tips, how to best cover the risk, and recent claims examples.
